The advertisement is divided into four horizontal sections. The top section features the Citadel Self Storage logo, which consists of the word "CITADEL" in large, bold, black capital letters, with a red triangle pointing upwards and a black triangle pointing downwards between the 'I' and 'D'. Below "CITADEL" is the word "SELF STORAGE" in red capital letters. The second section is a photograph of a modern, single-story self-storage facility with a mix of tan, brown, and grey siding. A wet asphalt driveway leads to the entrance, and a grassy area with some fallen leaves is in the foreground. The third section contains a black and white QR code. The bottom section has a black background with white text that reads: "Our modern facilities are designed with you in mind, offering temperature-controlled units and 24-hour monitoring!". Below this, on a white background, is the text "Climate Controlled Units Starting at $100/Month" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. At the very bottom, on a black background, is the address and contact information in white text: "289 Center Dr | Glenwood Springs, CO 81601 (970)-930-8550 | info@citadel970.com".

13. Rio Grande Trail
Bike, walk or jog this continuous 42-mile multi-use trail unobstructed by vehicular traffic. It's paved with the exception of an 11-mile, soft-surface stretch from Woody Creek to Aspen. The Rio Grande runs alongside the Roaring Fork River most of the way, from West Glenwood Springs at 23rd St. near Alpine Bank, to Downtown Aspen. The Glenwood portion of the trail also connects to the city's river trail, which runs from 23rd St. to Two Rivers Park near I-70. Access points are at multiple locations along Highway 82.
